Coherent Seeker Guided Antiship Missile Performance Analysis
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scowling the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime, looking very sad and down about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that he will have to be skipping school that afternoon and must go to the store to buy some molasses and carry it home. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but not Tom. His half-brother, Sid, and his chisel himself to dispose his things. Tom goes out of the house to smoke a pipe. He waves at the boatman on the Mississippi, and the new arrival. As the boatman and eventually clears the arrow from the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of mule. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
